Applicant Privacy Notification Policy

Notification

The City of Holly Springs licenses for alcohol licensing and as a part of the process conducts fingerprint-based background checks through the Georgia Crime Information Center. Prior to fingerprinting each individual must complete an application and receive a copy of both the Applicant Privacy Rights and the Privacy Act Statement. The City of Holly Springs provides the applicant with the privacy rights as part of the application packet. Once the applicant has read and understands the Applicant Privacy Rights and the Privacy Act Statement, they will sign a form stating the notification was received and maintain such document for no less than 3 years.

Record Challenge/Correction

If an applicant chooses to challenge the accuracy of the criminal history record or needs to correct or update a record they will be given 30 days to do so. The applicant is notified that the procedures for challenging an FBI record are set forth in 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34 and the procedures for challenging a Georgia record can be found on the GBI website. The applicants may be given a copy of the criminal history record only when they sign the Non-Criminal Justice Agency Secondary Dissemination Log.

Appeal Process

The applicant is provided an opportunity to appeal an adverse decision based on the criminal history record information provided from the fingerprint-based background check. The procedures for the appeal process are as follows:

- The applicant shall have seven days from the date of the notice to appeal the decision before the mayor and city council.
- The request shall be in writing and delivered to the administrator.
- The appeal shall be held at the next regularly scheduled council meeting unless the applicant shall agree to an extension of time.

If the appeals process includes a public hearing, the following requirements will be followed:

- hearing is based on a formally established requirement;
- applicant is aware prior to the hearing that CHRI may be disclosed;
- applicant is not prohibited from being present at the hearing; and
- CHRI is not disclosed during the hearing if the applicant withdraws from the application process.

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

Authority: The FBI's acquisition, preservation, and exchange of fingerprints and associated information is generally authorized under 28 U.S.C. 534. Depending on the nature of your application, supplemental authorities include Federal statutes, State statutes pursuant to Pub. L. 92-544, Presidential Executive Orders, and federal. Providing your fingerprints and associated information is voluntary; however, failure to do so may affect completion or approval of your application.

Social Security Account Number (SSAN). Your SSAN is needed to keep records accurate because other people may have the same name and birth date. Pursuant to the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 (5 USC 552a), the requesting agency is responsible for informing you whether disclosure is mandatory or voluntary, by what statutory or other authority your SSAN is solicited, and what uses will be made of it. Executive Order 9397 also asks Federal agencies to use this number to help identify individuals in agency records.

Principal Purpose: Certain determinations, such as employment, licensing, and security clearances, may be predicated on fingerprint-based background checks. Your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics may be provided to the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency, and/or the FBI for the purpose of comparing your fingerprints to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories) or other available records of the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency. The FBI may retain your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics in NGI after the completion of this application and, while retained, your fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI.

Routine Uses: During the processing of this application and for as long thereafter as your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics are retained in NGI, your information may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may be disclosed without your consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 and all applicable Routine Uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the Routine Uses for the NGI system and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses. Routine uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to: employing, governmental or authorized non-governmental agencies responsible for employment, contracting licensing, security clearances, and other suitability determinations; local, state, tribal, or federal law enforcement agencies; criminal justice agencies; and agencies responsible for national security or public safety.

Additional Information: The requesting agency and/or the agency conducting the application- investigation will provide you additional information pertinent to the specific circumstances of this application, which may include identification of other authorities, purposes, uses, and consequences of not providing requested information. In addition, any such agency in the Federal Executive Branch has also published notice in the Federal Register describing any systems(s) of records in which that agency may also maintain your records, including the authorities, purposes, and routine uses for the system(s).
